MARYLAND GAZETTE.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 4, 1777

LONDON.

I am glad ... sloop ... to the ... enfued ... the enemy, ... to take ... under way ... in every ... squadron ... protect the ...

The arrival of ... very ... of men-of-war ...

The British Gazette of ... ordinary account ... fifteen from ... was ... the execution of ... him mount the ... pushed for ... the first ... and thinks ... appears to be ... are certain ... is full of ... from ...

CHARLESTOWN (S. C.) ...

Letters from France ... America in England, ... adopted ... return ... two provinces ...

We are ... and Nichols (three ... ty-eight ... were ... given to the prisoners.

BALTIMORE, ... 4.

Extract of a letter from a gentleman in his friend in this town, dated camp's Shipyard Road, to ... delphia, October 24, 1777.

"Good news of late has come upon us so rapidly, that we scarce ... how ... to make of it, or how to believe it. ... intelligence from the northward ... was of our success ... the last ... the glory of our arms in that quarter, by the surrender of general Burgoyne, and all the forces under his command.

"Before this can come to hand, you will have heard of general Howe's withdrawing ... troops from Germantown to Philadelphia and its ... Wednesday last (I am just now informed by a gentleman who came express to his excellency) an attempt was made to storm Red-Bank fort. The fort is commanded by col. Green, of New England, as I am informed. ... particulars he could not ... He said, however, that count Donop, the ... commanding ... was wounded, and ... killed and wounded ... He also informed us the loss of two ... of that ... was not certain. ... detachment from our army was to ... the enemy on Schuylkill, ... Ferry. ... intelligence of our success ... It is supposed ... encamped ... To facilitate ... fuccefs, parties of ... were marched ... the enemy's lines to ... without doing any thing. ... One of them picketed ... I was near, is about ... miles from ... market-house, on the road ... All the morning ... and heavy cannonading was kept up on the ... and continued with the utmost violence ... between 11 and 12 o'clock, when we could ... by the help of a ... telescope, from Mr. ... very black ... which we ... supposed to be a ... had the glass at my ... appeared, was ... the enemy's ships ... We continued to ... the vessel for near ... and then a sudden ... received a most violent ... pillar of black ... prodigious height. ... quarters, that two ... Augusta) one of ... the ... is not confirmed ... ed to believe that ... lachlanan which ... ing battery. But you have the facts ... Howe's motions ... ther doubtful. It is the ... politicians, that he ... Philadelphia. ... The brave ... —the gallant behaviour of ... of the Hessians at Red-Bank ... folding the city. And probably, if he does not make ... back to New-York, he may ...

... William Howe, Sir Guy Carleton, and to ... Rodney, ... by the way of New-York, and major-general ... engages the public faith, that these dispatches ... shall not be opened. These officers to set out ... after ... their dispatches, and to ... upon the most expeditious ...

... the troops in Massachusets-bay, the ... to their parole, and ... to be ... arms.

... that army, under lieutenant-general Burgoyne, ... necessaries, and ... for their cloathing, ... are to be permitted ... in a convenient manner, and the neceſſary ... for that purpoſe.

... are to be mutually ſigned and exchanged ... by the generals ... and Burgoyne, and the troops under lieutenant-general Burgoyne are to march out of their entrenchments, at three o'clock in the afternoon.

Camp at Saratoga, October 16, 1777.

(A COPY.)

Extract of a letter from major Samuel Ward to general Washington, dated Head Quar. Oct. 23, 1777.

"By the defire of gen. Gates, I congratulate your excellency on the ſucceſs of his troops yeſterday. On the 17th inſt. 2 battalions of Germans, amounting to 1600, commanded by the baron Donop, col. commandant ... landed at Cooper's ferry, and marched the ... way to Haddonfield. At 3 o'clock yeſterday morning they marched for this place; when the guard at Timber creek bridge were informed of their approach, they took up the bridge, and the enemy filed off to the left, and croſſed at a bridge four miles above. ... were diſcovered within a quarter ... at 11 o'clock, at half after 4, p. m. they ſent a flag to ſummon the fort, who was told that it ſhould never be ſurrendered. At three quarters after 4 they began a brisk cannonade, and ſoon after advanced in two columns to the attack. They paſſed the abattees, gained the ditch, and a few got over the pickets, but the fire was ſo heavy that they were ſoon drove back, with the loſs of 1 lieutenant colonel, 3 captains, 3 lieutenants, and near 70 killed; and the baron Donop, his brigade major, a captain, lieutenant, and upwards of 70 non-commiſſioned officers and privates wounded and taken priſoners. They then retreated precipitately towards Haddonfield. We hear they had ſeveral waggons taken. Our loſs is, in col. Greene's regiment, 2 ſerjeants, 1 fife, and 4 privates killed, 1 ſerjeant and 3 privates wounded, 1 captain (who was accidentally) taken priſoner; col. Angel has 1 captain killed, 3 ſerjeants and 3 rank and file, and 1 enſign, 1 ſerjeant, and 25 rank and file wounded. Two of capt. Duplene's company were ſlightly wounded; the engagement laſted 40 minutes; there have already been brought into the fort near 300 muſkets, and a conſiderable number of ſwords, cartridge-boxes, &c."

Extract from col. J. Miflin's letter, Oct. 24, 1777.

"Yeſterday an attack was made upon Fort Miflin by 6 ſhips, which were warped through the cheveaux de frize, at Billingſport, in the night; they began the cannonade at day-break, which continued very hot till 10 o'clock, when the gallies forced them to give way; in retiring, a 64 gun ſhip (ſaid to be the Auguſta) ran aground, and alſo a frigate (the Liverpool), and were ſet on fire by their own people. Two men were wounded in the fort."

Extract of a letter from York-Town, October 31, 1777.

"By an officer at Bethlehem, on his way from general Burgoyne to general Howe, to procure tranſports to carry general Burgoyne and his army to Great-Britain, agreeable to the convention entered into at Saratoga, on the 16th of October, we are informed of the loſs ſuſtained by the Britiſh army in the north, this campaign, as follows:

Britiſh, by capitulation, the 16th of October	2,442
Foreigners	2,198
Sent to Canada	1,240
Gen. Burgoyne and his ſtaff, among which are ſix members of parliament	12
Sick	593
Wounded	528
Priſoners of war before the convention	400
Deſerters	300
Loſt at Bennington	1,220
Killed between Sept. 17, and Oct. 18	600
Taken priſoners at north end of Lake-George	40
Killed in gen. Herkimer's battle	300
	10,098

At Saratoga, 37 braſs pieces of cannon, royals and mortars, with implements and ſtores complete, 5000 ſtand of arms, 400 ſetts of harneſs, a number of ammunition waggons and harneſs; at Bennington, 6 field-pieces; at Fort-Schuyler, 2 field-pieces and 4 Royals.

Gen. Clinton has burnt the beautiful village of Kingſton, and every other valuable building within his reach; it is ſaid his army is retreating down the North River. Two brigades from gen. Gates's army were under marching orders, the 29th of October, to pro-

... Articles of CONVENTION between lieutenant-general BURGOYNE and major-general GATES.

I. The troops under lieutenant-general Burgoyne are to march out of their camp ... the honours of war, and the artillery of the ... entrenchments, to the verge of the river, where the ... which the arms and artillery are to be left. ... arms to be piled by word of command from their own officers.

II. A free paſſage to be ... to the army under lieutenant general Burgoyne to Great-Britain, upon condition of not ſerving again in North-America during the preſent conteſt; and the port of Boſton is aſſigned for the entry of tranſports, to receive the troops whenever general Howe ſhall ſo order.

III. Should any cartel take place, by which the army under general Burgoyne, or any part of it, may be exchanged, the foregoing article to be void, as far as ſuch exchange ſhall be made.

IV. The army under lieutenant-general Burgoyne to march to Maſſachuſetts-bay by the eaſieſt, and moſt expeditious, and convenient ... and to be quartered in, near, or as conveniently as poſſible to Boſton, that the march of the troops may not be delayed when tranſports arrive to receive them.

V. The troops to be ſupplied on their marches and during their being in quarters, with proviſions, by general Gates, at the ſame rate of rations as the troops of his own army, and if poſſible, the officers horſe and cattle are to be ſupplied with forage at the uſual rate.

VI. All officers to retain their carriages, baſs horſes, and other cattle, and no baggage to be moleſted or ſearched, lieutenant general Burgoyne giving his honour there are no public ſtores ſecreted therein. Major general Gates will of courſe take the neceſſary meaſures for the due performance of this article. Should any carriages be wanting for the tranſportation of officers baggage, they are if poſſible to be ſupplied by the country at the uſual rates.

VII. Upon the march, and during the time the army ſhall remain in quarters in the Maſſachuſetts-Bay, the officers are not, as far as circumſtances will admit, to be ſeparated from their men. The troops are to be quartered according to ranks, and are not to be hindered from aſſembling their men for roll calling and other purpoſes of regularity.

VIII. All corps whatever, of general Burgoyne's army, whether conſiſting of ſailors, batteau men, artificers, drivers, independent companies, and followers of the army, of whatever country, ſhall be included in the moſt extenſive ſenſe of the above article, and comprehended in every reſpect as Britiſh troops.

IX. All Canadians, and others belonging to the Canadian eſtabliſhment, conſiſting of Gaſpey, Batteau men, artificers, drivers, independent companies, and many other followers of the army, who came under no particular deſcription, are to be permitted to return there; they are to be ſent immediately, by the ſhortest way to Quebec, and are to be ſupplied with proviſions in the ſame manner as the troops now marching from Saratoga to Boſton, and are to be bound by the ſame conditions not to ſerve during the preſent conteſt in North-America.

X. Paſſports to be immediately granted for ... to ſend ... to ... and ... to ... Howe, ... by the way of New-York, and major-general Gates engages the public faith, that these diſpatches ſhall not be opened. These officers to ſet out ... after ... their diſpatches, and to ... upon the moſt expeditious ...

November 3, 1777.

For SALE,

THE following TRACTS of LAND, viz. the New Littlewood Forest, Stevens's Hope, and part of the tan-yard, containing 644 acres, lying in Charles county, between Jordan Swamp and Mattawoman Swamp; one tract, called the Custall Rebecca and Sturgeon's Tail, containing 256 acres, lying part in Charles county, and part in Prince-George's county, on a branch, called the Wolf's Den; one other tract, called Poplar Thicket, containing 233 acres, lying in Prince-George's county. Any person inclinable to purchase, may know the title and terms, by applying to w3 CL. WHEELER.

November 3, 1777.

To be LET, and entered on the 10th day of December next,

THE PLANTATION of Richard Lane, containing 350 acres of land, some fine meadow belonging to the same, all under good fence, with a large commodious dwelling-house, 36 by 34 feet, tobacco-houses, negro quarters, and other out-houses necessary and convenient to the same, all in good repair. For the rent, and other particulars, enquire of the proprietor, living on the premises, near Lion's creek bridge, on the Annapolis road, the upper end of Calvert county.

N. B. A good garden and orchard on the premises, and corn, wheat, and fodder.

w3

Swamp, Anne-Arundel county, Oct. 24, 1777.

ALL persons having claims against the estate of JOSEPH GOTT, deceased, are requested to bring in their respective accounts, properly authenticated, that they may be adjusted and paid: And all that are indebted to said estate, either by bond, note, or open account, are requested to settle, either by payment, or renewing their bonds, &c. Those that do not comply with this reasonable request may expect to be dealt with as the law directs, by 3w ELISABETH GOTT, Executrix of JOSEPH GOTT.

November 4, 1777.

To be SOLD by public vendue, on the 5th of December, at Mr. Worrall's tavern,

A LOT of ground in Corster-Town, on which is a three story BRICK HOUSE, conveniently situated for any kind of public business, and has been formerly occupied as a tavern, for which it is extremely well calculated. The terms will be made known by Mr. John Galloway, who will attend the sale.

AGREEABLE to the will of Mr. BENJAMIN BERRY, deceased, will be SOLD by public vendue, at Mrs. Gibson's, in Upper-Marlborough, on Wednesday the 26th of November, for ready money, several NEGROES, consisting of men, women, boys and girls.

3w SARAH BERRY, Executrix.
DAVID CRAUFURD, }
JOHN BERRY, } Executors.

EIGHT DOLLARS REWARD.

November 3, 1777.

LOST, yesterday morning, between South river ferry and Mr. Toutel's tavern, a large silk POCKET-BOOK, of lead-coloured taffety, with a polished steel hasp and catch, with some money in, the quantity unknown exactly, but supposed to be about fourteen pounds, of which is between three and four pounds of old Maryland money, and the rest in continental money: In one of the pockets of said book there were two gold rings set with garnet, one with four hearts very small in, the other a large heart, single. Whoever finds, or can give any information of said book, so that the owner may get it again, shall be entitled to the above reward, if brought to Mr. Jonathan Sellman's, on Rhode-river; Mrs. Ferguson's, at London-Town, South-River; Mr. Christopher Harvey, at Mr. Jacob Myers's, Baltimore; or to the subscriber, living at Leigh-Furnace, Little Pipe Creek, Frederick county, Maryland.

w3 JONATHAN SELLMAN, son of John.

Charles county, October 20, 1777.

On Thursday the 20th of November next, will be set up for sale to the highest bidder,

THE PLANTATION on which I now dwell, containing about five hundred and forty-three acres of land, lying in Charles county, near Port-Tobacco; on which are a dwelling-house, with seven rooms and two passages on the lower floor, and five rooms and a passage above stairs, an exceeding good kitchen with a brick floor, a brick dairy, a spinning-room and lumber-room, under one roof; a large granary, corn-house, stables, two tobacco-houses, cow-house, a dwelling-house, calculated to suit a weaver, and other out-houses; a peach orchard, containing about six hundred trees; a young apple orchard, just beginning to bear, and other fruit-trees.—This land is rich, and capable of producing any commodity suited to the climate; there is a considerable quantity of low ground, which might be converted into fine meadow.

The situation is high, dry, and healthy, the prospect delightful, having a fine view of Patowmack river, Virginia, Port-Tobacco creek, and the neighbourhood all round; very convenient to two places of public worship, a protestant church, and a roman catholic chapel, which last is an elegant building, full in view, and adds to the other beauties of the place; two grist mills within a mile and a half, and Port-Tobacco warehouse almost at the door, plenty of fish in their season, and frequent opportunities in the winter of getting oysters—in short, this seat has every advantage to make life delightful and happy. Any person inclinable to purchase may view the premises, and know the terms of sale, by applying to tf WILLIAM HANSON.

St. Mary's county, Sept. 22, 1777.

DRIFTED up along shore, upon Patowmack river, near the mouth of Clement's-Bay, a POCKET-BOOK, with a sum of money in it. The owner is requested to prove his book and the sum of money, pay charges, and take it away.

w6 2 NEHEMIAH HUBERT BLAKISTONE.

July 3, 1777.

ALL persons indebted, on open account, to the copartnership of JAMES DICK and STEWART, or to either of them, are requested to discharge the same by payment, or to settle and give bonds for their debts, with security, where required, which will save all further trouble, as, if this request is not soon complied with, suits will be commenced without further notice.—Attendance will be given on every Thursday, Friday, and Saturday, at the subscriber's store at Annapolis, and on Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday, at his house in London-Town.

tf JAMES DICK.

Intend of attending at Annapolis as above mentioned, attendance will now be given every Thursday and Friday, at Newbold's Rope-walk, near Annapolis.

To be SOLD at public vendue, for ready money only, on Tuesday the 4th day of November, at the late dwelling-house of Mrs. Sarah Fitz, deceased, in Queen's-Town, Queen-Anne's county, SUNDRY HOUSHOLD FURNITURE, consisting of feather beds with furniture, table-linen, mahogany tables and chairs, chints, earthen ware, pewter, kitchen furniture, and four milch cows. The sale to begin at ten o'clock, and continue till all are sold. All persons who have any claims against the said Sarah Fitz are requested to send them to the subscribers, properly proved, that they may be discharged; and all those indebted to the said Fitz are requested to make speedy payment.

tf THO. FITZ JAMMONDS, Executor.

Baltimore, October 29, 1777.

IN compliance with my directions from Col. Smith, I have to order the under-mentioned soldiers of the 3rd Maryland regiment to rendezvous at this town by the 20th of next month, at farthest, or they may depend that no pains will be spared to apprehend them and have them punished as deserters. If those who have absented themselves without leave do then attend, in order to join their respective companies at camp, the inspector will exert his utmost influence to procure them pardon, which he doubts not to effect.

JOSEPH FORD,
Captain in the 3d Maryland regiment.

John Keen, Robert Leaf, William Tinsmore, Robert Adder, William M'Ginnis, Joseph Smith, and John Willson, of capt. Wade's company—James Carmichael, or his substitute, John Slack, Thomas Hennen, John Powell, Richard Gray, Samuel Wray, John Hollis, Thomas Hewlings, and John Radle, of capt. Ewing's company—Ignatius Bean, Christopher Beall, Richard Hutchinson, James Taylor, Lawrence Kaney, and David Gibney, of capt. Rawlings's company—Samuel Vermilion, William Smith, William Browne, and William Phelps, of capt. Beall's company—William Wood, Thomas Kenady, and William Langley, of capt. Murray's company—Samuel Glasgow, William Dade, James M'Carty, Richard Lowe, Edward Price, William Baker, John Majors, Jacob Butler, Coxen Talbot, Hugh Armstrong.

N. B. Persons harbouring or concealing any of the above soldiers, will be punished with the utmost severity of the law.

w3

TWENTY DOLLARS REWARD.

August 14, 1777.

RAN away, on Saturday the 9th instant, from the subscriber, in Bladensburg, a Mulatto slave named John, [illegible] the Baptist, which he calls himself; he was [illegible] ago the property of Mr. James Brooke, in Anne-Arundel county, and have heard he was this day in that town. Any person apprehending the said slave, and secures him so as the owner may get him again, shall have the above reward, and reasonable charges paid, if brought to Bladensburg.

w4 LEVY GANTT.

Anne-Arundel county Swamp, October 1, 1777.

THIS is to acquaint my good old customers that my old crop of leather is all done and in my way, and shall be obliged to them to come and pay for it, and take it away. I am also drawing my new crop, and as the price of bark and oil is greatly advanced, hope my customers will not think hard of my advancing in my price. I still continue to take in hides, but must advance in my price in proportion to the advanced price of bark and oil.

w4 BENJ. NORMAN.

SALT-PANS, ten feet square, and fifteen inches deep, with screws ready to join and fit them up, made at Catoctin furnace, about ten miles from Frederick-Town, at fifty-five pounds per ton. If different sizes are desired, they will be attempted.—Carriage from the furnace to Baltimore is now at seven pounds a ton.

JAMES JOHNSON.

Prince-George's county, July 23, 1777.

WILLIAM WATERS takes this method to desire all those whose accounts have been standing with him unsettled twelve months, to make immediate payment, which will prevent trouble and expence to them as well as to himself.

tf

TEN DOLLARS REWARD.

Elk-Ridge, Anne-Arundel county, near Green's mill, Patuxent river, July 7, 1777.

RAN away from the subscriber, a convict servant man, named GEORGE HOLT, about 5 feet 4 or 5 inches high, about 23 or 24 years of age, light sandy hair tied back, has a weakness in one of his thumbs: Had on a country hat half worn, and a coarse country shirt, almost new, one linsey jacket with a yellow cotton cape, and one striped ditto with yellow metal buttons, coarse striped country trousers, old shoes newly heeled, old stockings black and blue, an old razor, and an old day-book with his name in many places in it. It is supposed he has forged a pass, and will endeavour to get on board some vessel. Whoever secures the said servant, so that his master may get him again, shall have ten dollars reward, and if brought home, all reasonable charges paid, by me.

w3 WILLIAM RAY.

To be SOLD,

FIVE hundred weight of WOOL. Enquire of the Printer.

SIXTEEN DOLLARS REWARD.

Anne-Arundel county, October 14, 1777.

RAN away, the 13th of last month, from the subscriber, at the subscriber's plantation, mid-way between the head of Severn and Elkridge, NEGRO SAMSON, a well-made lusty fellow, dark complexion, and thick lips; put on when he went away, a brown fearnought jacket, and breeches, and took with him a variety of other apparel, but cannot be particularly known. He was early taught reading and writing, which he will practice occasionally, and very wookishly forged a pass, or ticket for himself, or forged enough to exchange for one. He declared intention was to get on board some vessel, or get over the bay, in which he no doubt will succeed, being a sailor, and is likely to be harboured and entertained by some of his acquaintance, as he worked for several years on Mr. Ridout's plantation (the seat of the late col. Hammond) where he is well known. Whoever takes up said negro, and secures him so as his master may get him again, shall have the above reward, if taken out of this county, and if in any other county, or in the city of Annapolis, in proportion, and all reasonable charges paid, by me, or by William Hammond, at the head of Severn, or at the upper ferry.

tf JOHN HAMMOND.

Charles county, Nanjemoy, Oct. 6th, 1777.

For SALE,

A SLOOP, burthen about 30 hogsheads of tobacco, with a fix hogshead shallop; the sloop very well found, new hills and rigging very good, two cables and anchors, one of her cables quite new, the other about half worn, about six years old, has had a thorough repair this last summer. Any person inclinable to purchase, may apply to the subscriber at Nanjemoy.

3w AND. BAILLIE.

October 6, 1777.

The subscribers has to rent or lease, for a term of years not exceeding eleven, and entered on immediately,

TWO extraordinary MILLS, joining together, the one a grist, and the other a fulling-mill, with all the materials proper for each of them, situated on a never failing stream of water, lying and being in Anne-Arundel county, on the head of South-River, within nine miles of Annapolis, and eighteen of Queen-Anne, and in the most plentiful place, perhaps, for custom, of any mills on the continent. Likewise a small plantation with good buildings, to wit, a dwelling-house planked above and below, a cellar underneath, a good stone chimney, and all other necessary houses, a very fine paled garden, and a young apple orchard. Also a very valuable meadow, with proper colours, capable of producing near one hundred pounds per annum. This place would answer very well for a tavern, being on a very public road leading through the country. For terms apply to w3 CASSANDRA DUCKER.

Calvert county, Lion's-Creek.

TO be RUN for, near my house, on Friday and Saturday, the 3d and 4th of October next, any quantity of exceeding good fatt fed beef, not exceeding one thousand weight. If the gentlemen racers should not think proper to make up any beef, there will be a purse of ten pounds, free for any horse, mare, or gelding, carrying weight for age, one hundred and twenty to be the standard, and to raile and fall according as the rules of racing. Horses, &c. to be entered the same day of the races, with the subscriber, by one o'clock. The same purse of ten pounds, or beef, will be run for here every Friday and Saturday, agreeable to this advertisement, from that date, till the 19th and 20th of December next.

tf BENJ. LANE, of Richard.

N. B. Good entertainment for man and horse at my house, where they always find good [illegible] oysters. B. L.

July [illegible] 1777.

FIFTY DOLLARS REWARD.

RAN away from the subscriber [illegible] plow fitting-mill, a convict servant named SAMUEL WRIGHT, by trade a millwright, but can turn his hands to almost any sort of business, thirty-eight years of age, about 5 feet 6 inches high, very fearful complexion, black curling hair, much given to liquor. Had on a frize waistcoat without sleeves, leather breeches, half worn shoes, country linen shirt, and an old hat. Whoever takes up and secures the said servant, so that his master may get him again, shall have, if taken ten miles from home, three pounds; if twenty miles, five pounds; if forty miles, seven pounds, and if out of the province, the above reward.

WILLIAM WHETCROFT.

FIFTEEN DOLLARS REWARD.

Washington county, Chew's-Farm, Sept. 15, 1777.

RAN away from the subscriber, on Chew's-Farm, a NEGRO fellow named Sampson, about six feet high, between forty and fifty years of age: Had on and took with him, when he went away, an old full linsey jacket, a pair of blue breeches, a tow shirt and trousers, but may have other cloaths. He is remarkable by having a blemish in one of his eyes, is a designing, cunning rogue, though would often appear silly, or a fool, by which means he disguises himself. Having been sailed on the eastern shore, I have reason to think he has gone that way, having frequently expressed a desire to be there.—Whoever takes up said negro, and returns him to the subscriber, if within thirty miles, shall receive eight dollars, and if farther, the above reward, paid by w3 SIMON DOYLE.

ANNAPOLIS: Printed by FREDERICK GREEN.